LITTLE BENNY'S NOTEBOOK

Ma was watching pop smoking to himself in his private chair, saying, William, it's a long way till next winter and nothing is still farther from my mind than a new fur coat.

For Peet sake you've got a new fur coat, pop said, and ma said, I know it, and that's what makes the whole situation so ridiculous. I mean the styles are going to be completely different next season so I thought maybe I better take advantage of the summer by having an idle furrier do my fur coat over, she said.

An idle furrier costs more than a busy silver fox nowadays, pop said, and ma said, Now William, what's going to happen to my self confidence if I appear in an outdated fur coat next winter

My last wish is for the refugees from Spain, China, Czecho-Slovakia, and Germany. Wouldn't it be a good idea if we all cut down on our Christmas gifts a little bit this year and used the difference to assist these thousands of unfortunate people? Such are my wishes for the New Year. Thank you for the space to express them.

USE FOR USED CHRISTMAS TREES

To the Editor of the Whig-Standard:

Sir—Every year there are always those who deplore the cutting of so many fine young trees for Christmas. This is a regrettable matter in many ways, still the trees give so much pleasure to so many people it is not, though they are wanton waste.

Just after the Christmas season these trees become a nuisance to their owners and unless they can be chopped and fed into the furnace they lie

MRS. SARAH I. McDONALD

The death occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. Edwin Bell, 178 Ordinance Street, on Tuesday of Mrs. Sarah I. McDonald. She had been in poor health for some time and in May had the misfortune to fall and break her left hip. She was getting along nicely when on July 28 she suffered a severe stroke and passed away after a very brief illness.

The late Mrs. McDonald was born at Collins Bay in 1863 and lived there practically all her life. She was a daughter of the late Henry Smith and Mariah Edwards and wife of the late Daniel Wright McDonald, who predeceased her 29 years ago. Her devoted daughter, Ada, also predeceased her 17 years ago.

Mrs. McDonald is survived by one daughter, Mrs. H. Edwin Bell. Her mother had lived with her for the past 17 years. The funeral was held on Thursday from her residence to the United Church at Collins Bay of which Mrs. McDonald had been a valued member. The service was conducted by Rev. R. M. Seymour and Rev. Elwood Lawson, an old friend of the family. Rev. Mr. Lawson spoke of the work of the late Mrs. McDonald in the church, the Sunday school and the Ladies Aid. Miss Ina Caverly sang, "Sunrise."

Many floral tributes and the large attendance at the church bespoke the wide circle of friends which Mrs. McDonald had made. Interment took place in the family plot at Cataraqui United Cemetery. The pallbearers were George Clark, Charles Riley, William Blackley, Frank Leonard, George Ellerbeck and Arthur Day.

WILKES PETERS

The funeral of Wilkes Peters of Newburg, who died in the Kingston General Hospital early Sunday morning following an accident Saturday night, when he was struck by a car near Cataragui, was held this (Tuesday) afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from R. J. Reid's funeral parlors to Sydenham Cemetery. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Basil Thompson of Queen Street United Church.

WILLIAM EBEN REVELLE

At the Kingston General Hospital on Monday afternoon, December 19th, several years of heart trouble closed in death for William Eben Revelle, of 62 College Street, city. He was nearing his 69th birthday.

The deceased's parents belonged to families who settled in Canada in the early part of the last century. His grandfather came from Nottingham, England, to join the garrison at Quebec, and at one time held on lease from the Crown the property now occupied by Lake Ontario Park and the golf links. On his mother's side there were U. E. Loyalist ancestors. The early part of his life was spent in Portland Township. In 1912 he took up residence in Kingston. On New Year's, 1915, he enlisted with the Queen's Engineer and served in France and Belgium throughout the war with the 6th Field Engineers. He rose to the rank of sergeant, was "mentioned in dispatches," and went to Germany with the Army of Occupation. For about twenty years he was a member of the staff of the Frontenac County jail, and since his retirement three years ago had interested himself in the care of the grounds of his attractive home on College Street.

He is survived by two sons: Adrian Revelle, barrister, city, and Dr. Ian Revelle, Nipigon, Ontario. His wife, Sarah Elizabeth Thompson, predeceased him three years ago this month.

The remains are resting at R. J. Reid's funeral parlor, where the service will be conducted on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock by Rev. George A. Brown, D.D. Interment at Cataragui Cemetery.

My dear and valued friend

Dr. Burleigh -

Andrew gave me your message - I hope you can read this as I am on my back - left leg in traction and dressing on hip affair. I have had very little pain except from muscle spasms and now - - -

As for the info you ask for I hope you are not in a hurry as I am not on this end - What I have is from what father told me - at times when he was lonesome after mother died - I take it his earlier life was not too happy.

I had wanted to get in to see you but was so crippled and conscious of my condition - all I could see ahead was

The wheel chair - not for me - as you know. - So have living in hopes of taking up the Threads where I left off from.
Everyone has been so good more than I deserve - and by God's help I hope to make the grade.

Sincere greetings to Mrs.
Berleigh and all the young folks - Very sincerely until later Helena C. Reasoner.

Dear old friend

I keep getting good reports on your expected good recovery. The reports also indicate that the type of operation have been successful. We all look forward to your complete recovery.

I hope that you are still making notes on the past of our village and its people.

Best wishes

Anthony - Ellen - John - Jane - De Buringh
David - Alice - James and Monica.

Father lived in an old house across from the school on Days' Road. - It has been taken down. The school where the ~~Henderson~~ Herrington sisters bought. His teacher was trying to teach them to add 4 columns at once - he had his hand up to his head trying to do this work. The teacher told him to wake up and father said "I am not asleep". The teacher hit him over the shoulder with a rod. When he went home he said he was not going back - he was only 8 yrs. old. So grandmother took him to school in the morning and he hid in the wood shed until she had gone home. Then he went down to Pittsburg to one of the uncles who lived in a log cabin. He had to climb a ladder to get up stairs to bed. As he lay awake he heard the uncle say to the Aunt "I will get

Please answer and return to me. H.C. Buleigh

Query: Why was your father named Anthony?

Answer: Grandmother McC - told us there was some relation between the McGuinns and Rankins - Collins Bay - They each had an Anthony Query: Did your grandmother McCaugherty have brothers and sisters? If so, can you name them?

Answer: Father told me of 3 brothers - Matthew, Abraham and Isaac (sp)? and she an only girl Jane.

Query: Name the parents of your grandmother McCaugherty
Where did they live

Answer: I am not sure if I ever heard any thing except they were granted 200 acs. where the Ontario Hospital is now - - They came from Pittsburg - Penn. U.S.A - U.E.L.

Query: Can you name the aunts and uncles of this same Grandmother McCaugherty? No.

Answer: Grandmother McC. was married at 14 yrs. old her husband drank heavily and made her sell lots of land from her holding - and drank it -

Query: Where was your grandfather McCaugherty born? Did he come to Ontario as a soldier? Who were his parents?

Answer: I have no info on this whatever

Query: Were these people related to the McGuinns? If so, how?

Answer: As of above. -

Query: Name the brothers + sisters of your father.
Grandma lost her first child and father was born when she was 16. on Sept. 15th 1847. - There were 5 boys and 5 girls over

7. The young lad off to town in the morning with a load of wood on a sleigh and a team of oxen. So father waited until all was quiet and no stir - he stole down stairs and out and went to the uncle Matt's at the fishing ground at Cataragui Bay - After telling his story the uncle said he could stay - he did until he was 16 - Then took off for him self. He told me often the children at home went to bed hungry - no food in the house. He did not have much in common with the family until his father died.

In July 1867 he married Ellen Campion who was much older than her and was very jealous of him - They had Edward - Mary ^{now married} and Susan (Mrs A. Davy) and William who died at 2 yrs. of age - Their mother died in 1879 - and in 1880 he and mother were married. They were very happy - He was 8 mos. older than she. -

Oh on Thinking father's father's home was

32 in Pittsburg - There was a Hugh McC who lived there - a daughter Kate married Robert Free - he was a mason and they lived at 94 Division St in K.
This is as father talked and told me
after he was so much alone.

I have most of The story on Bath at the time I went to school - a few errors and omissions to correct and rewrite - I do want to have a chat with you sometime it maybe later when I can move around - Yes I am doing well for my age - hurrah for the Dutch and Irish -

I hope you can read This and make sense from it.

So until later all good wishes
H.C. Reasoner.
